Stoney Lake Park marks 25 years

By SAAM MACDONALD
Review Contributor

The Stoney Lake Pioneer Park and Campground reached a milestone last weekend, celebrating its 25th anniversary on Sept. 1.

Guests and dignitaries made their way to the lakeside park and enjoyed cake at the gazebo, while enjoying the warm weather. The park was quite busy at the time, and the festivities piqued the attention of a number of hungry patrons to the park.

County of St. Paul Reeve Steve Upham and Coun. Dwight Dach were in attendance, presiding over the celebrations and serving the cake.

"This is a celebration of the park, which shows how hard work can improve the community. It's a tribute to what can be done when you work hard and work together toward a common goal," said Upham in a speech before the cutting of the cake.

"It's wonderful, beautiful, and well-used by people all over," said Dach, adding "It's a good thing we have people . . . who can see what people will need. Everyone involved, the community, elected officials, and people who helped are great, and were seeing ahead of their own time with that project."

Another important individual among those celebrating was Russ Kowtun, a former employee for the County of St. Paul, and one of the volunteers who spearheaded the idea of creating the Stoney Lake park. He also worked on creating the park.

Kowtun's knowledge on the history and creation of Stoney Lake park is encyclopedic, and he didn't hesitate to share a generous amount of that historical knowledge.

Almost 40 clubs, organizations, services and agencies shared their information with an excellent crowd at the 29th Annual Information Night hosted by Elk Point FCSS last Tuesday evening in the Elk Point Arts and Leisure Centre.

Educational institutions from Elk Point Further Education to Portage College offered schedules and details of courses available, while Jack and Jill Playschool took registrations for the area's youngest students and Sew Stampsational displayed samples of the scrapbooking and card making crafts to be made in upcoming classes and Kids' Club sessions. Northern Lights Library System, whose headquarters are next door to the Arts and Leisure Centre, had information about the benefits of the system to northeast Alberta libraries and about their upcoming conference.

Sport and activity groups were also taking registration for figure skating, minor hockey, pond hockey, modern dance and Ukrainian Dance, CELEBRATION TIME - Russ Kowtun, St. Paul County Reeve Steve Upham, and Division Two Councillor Dwight Dach cut and serve the celebratory cake, at the Stoney Lake Park on Sept. 1. Cake was served as part of the park's 25th anniversary.

Anniversary

"There's lots of history behind the whole idea," says Kowtun. In the 1980s, there was a municipal recreation program that would give out grants as high as $100,000 for the purpose of developing parks, he explains.

Kowtun says there was a need for public parks with access to lakeshore property at the time. He was the county's assessor at the time, and knew of three pieces of land that would be ideally suited for the creation of such parks. The three pieces of land were Lac Bellevue, Westcove, and Stoney Lake.

"The most important thing was that the land was available. Being the county assessor, I knew where these locations were, and everything kind of clicked. I was the right guy who knew the right guys."

Kowtun and the others who worked on the park used the grant money to build parks that were, and are still, open to the public.

"This entire area was muskeg when we started. We had to get local people with equipment and trucks to develop this whole beach area," he recalls, adding, "Fortunately, with my background in corrections, I was able to arrange to have a lot of the work on the park done by inmates. That was cheap labour, and it helped get things done. The stage-coach over in the park was made by inmates."

Upham said the celebration event was a "great event."

"It's a wonderful way to pay tribute to the community involvement, and volunteerism. All of the effort went into this is valued because Stoney Lake is one of the jewels of the county," said the reeve.

A COUNTY JEWEL - Stoney Lake sparkles in its setting of forested hills.

A full slate of 72 women connected to the oil industry enjoyed a full day of fun and fellowship at Elk Point's Diamond Drillbit Golf Tournament on Saturday, topped off with a steak barbecue and prizes for all the participants.

Dusk had fallen and the showers that slowed down the final round had moved off by the time organizers Susan MacKinnon, Wanda Cochrane and Shaina Gadowski took the spotlight to announce the winners.

Hidden hole prizes went to Kim Wallington, Chantal Bonnier, Colleen Anderson, Cassia Krankowsky, Michelle Rupp and Dennell Anderson as everyone awaited the announcement of the flight winners.

Lorraine Quinney topped the first flight, with Marcy Jacula second and Jill Guy and Chantell Bonnier tied for third. Lisa Redhead took the lead in the second flight, with Gillian Cousins second and Cecile Demers third.

Wanda Cochrane had the winning score in the third flight, followed by Trina Bodurka and Susan MacKinnon. Emilie Johnson won flight four, with Jessica Lameman second and Nicole Borque third.

Brandi Krankowsky was the winner of the fifth flight, Trudy Rupp placing second and Corrine Cumby third, while in the sixth flight, Donna Spielmacher was the winner, followed by Jody Anne Half and Brianne Greening.

Lisa Van Maarion led the way in the seventh flight, followed by the daughter-mother duo of Andrea Lee and Carol Lee, with Charlene Plaska winning flight eight, with Angie Pacholek second and Melanie Poulin third. Michelle Marcoux won the ninth flight, with Janet Kotowich placing second and Melinda Henderson third.

Noreen Cameron won a putt-off for golf passes to Northern Meadows at Goodsoil.

The names of all the golfers were in the draw for six major prizes, where Corrine Cumby won the coveted Diamond Drillbit necklace, Amber Malo the diamond earrings, Jill Westman a stay at the Fantasyland Hotel, Connie Olstad a gas barbecue, Dennell Anderson a set of golf clubs and Megan Lehr a golf bag and golf accessories.

A draw for a vacation at Bighorn Meadows at Fairmont Hot Springs, BC, complete with golf passes and close to $1,500 in spending money went to Karen Stafford as the awards drew to a close.

Chamber back Sept. 25

By VICKI BROOKER

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce is taking a few extra weeks of holidays before resuming the monthly meetings, with their September meeting delayed until Thursday, Sept. 26 and moved from noon to 6:30 p.m. to allow ample time to deal with a longer than usual agenda.

Chamber president Debra McQuinn recently took a new job in St. Paul, but is hoping to continue as president for the balance of her term, although it would mean holding evening meetings. She has also announced that she plans to file nomination papers and run for town council in the Oct. 21 election.

McQuinn is hoping for good attendance at the upcoming meeting as members determine the immediate future of the chamber, including plans for the Christmas Extravaganza, an event that McQuinn chaired last year. Issues regarding operation of the Eco Centre are also on the agenda.

- Exercises like swimming, jogging and cycling are aerobic because the muscles demand a continuous stream of oxygen to burn the energy stored in their cells. Strength-training exercises like weight-lifting are considered non-aerobic since the energy is derived mainly from biochemical reactions not oxygen. But both types of exercises are important to good health.
- Obesity research is going in the direction of the microchip. In the future, it's hoped that a microchip can be implanted in the vagus nerve. This nerve sends hunger signals to the brain. The chip may be able to send another message to override the vagus message and, in essence, control appetite. Still a little way in the future.
- In Canada, over 3 million women and one million men suffer from migraine headaches. Sixty percent have more than one attack per month. One of the many triggers of migraine headaches is dehydration. You can avoid that trigger by drinking more water and limiting caffeine intake. Simple things but just may help.
- Pharmacists and doctors encourage you to take most antibiotic medication for a set length of time. It is based on research on how long it takes to eradicate an infection. This varies with the bacteria and the antibiotic. So to get the most out of your antibiotic prescription, take it for the number of days the doctor orders.
- As your pharmacist, our job is to make sure you understand how to get the most from your medication. We'll reinforce important information so, as in the case of an infection, you'll get better more quickly.

Success stories

Twenty-five years ago this week, two big announcements came on the same day: funding approval for Fort George and Buckingham House Interpretive Centre and the Ag Society's plans for an agricultural pavilion and fairgrounds.

There was naysaying over both. Who would come, who would use it, some said of both. It will never happen, some said of the agricultural pavilion.

The critics were wrong, as many of us thought they would be. Both facilities are well used, events are well attended, and both bring people to our community. Determination and dedication equals great destinations.

Way Back When...

Big announcement, big dreams, big milestone

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF SEPT. 10 IN...

1988

Alberta Minister of Culture and Multiculturalism Greg Stevens and Deputy Prime Minister Don Mazankowski announced the approval of $1.3 million for a major historical development at the sites of two of Alberta's earliest fur trading forts, Fort George and Buckingham House. Elk Point Agricultural Society unveiled plans for a comprehensive fairgrounds and agricultural pavilion project, with Ag Society president Glenn Harms noting that although they have "been told a lot of reasons not to build this fairgrounds... we need it and we're not stopping for hell or high water."

1993

Pan Canadian Petroleum celebrated reaching their 100,000 barrel per day production milestone, reached on Aug. 11, with a '100,000 Barrel Bash' for employees, contractors, suppliers and other guests that included a golf tournament, banquet and dance. Darrell Wickham was named Cowboy of the Year by the Lakeland Rodeo Association, winning the honor not only for his prowess on a horse, but also for his dedication to the rodeo and to the LRA.

1998

It was back to school for the 50th time for Vernon 'Babe' Sharkey of Heinsburg, who drove his first school bus route in 1948, as part of a fleet started by his father two years earlier, and started his own bus-ing business the following year when his parents gave him and his bride Colleen their own bus for a wedding present. Michelle Friesen placed first and Pam Jabush second in the Under-18 category and Travis Pankiw second in the Over-18 at Talent Quest '98 in St. Paul.

2003

"Whata wonderful turnout!" enthused Grandparents' Day celebration organizer Diana Anderson, as four generations crowded into the Seniors' Recreation Centre following the well attended walk-a-thon, adding, "It's a real tribute to grandparents." The chamber of commerce was making a fresh start for fall, with planning for the Christmas Extravaganza to start almost immediately.

2008

With an artist's concept in hand and the grant funding expected to arrive in a few weeks, chamber of commerce president Sandy Smith said fundraising was ready to start for the proposed Eco Centre. History was music to the ears of some of the performers, who came to the Forts des Prairies Jamboree for the atmosphere as well as to entertain with their favourite songs.

GUEST COLUMN

Autumn, or Fall?

Did you know that we have rewritten the English language? Fall for Autumn, color for colour, etc. Taking the vocabulary of Old English as a starting point, both Fall and Autumn as names for the season between summer and winter are late-comers. Fall derives from an Old English verb, but it wasn't used as a noun to designate the season until the 16th century. This use most likely developed from the Middle English expression "fall of the leaf." So what did Old English speakers call the season? Harvest. The need for a new word arose from a population shift that made cities more important than farmland. From being a word for the season, harvest came to refer only to the agricultural event that occurs in that season. Autumn as a word for the season came into common usage about the same time as Fall did. The English who settled the eastern American seaboard brought the word Fall with them from the homeland. The English who stayed home eventually adopted the word Autumn. So wherever you are from, you will use one or the other word or maybe both words to describe this season of the year.

There is a popular song called "Autumn Leaves" which describes feelings about fall.

*The falling leaves drift by the window
The autumn leaves of red and gold
I see your lips, the summer kisses
The sunburned hands I used to hold
Since you went away the days grow long
And soon I'll hear old winter's song*

deanna
EASTHOPE
from the FCSS desk

*But I miss you most of all my darling
When autumn leaves start to fall.*

Autumn of Fall as a season, seems to bring out the nostalgic in our thoughts. Joe L. Wheeler (author, editor and collector of old classic stories) said it this way. He said: "There is something incredibly nostalgic and significant about the annual cascade of autumn leaves." So yes, the Autumn Leaves popular song reflects those thoughts.

There is another poem that reflects on thoughts. It is called: "The Salutation of Dawn" by the Indian poet Kalidasa.

*Listen to the Exhortation of the Dawn!
Look to this Day!
For it is Life, the very Life of Life.
In its brief course lie all the Verities and Realities of your Existence.
The Bliss of Growth,
The Glory of Action,
The Splendor of Beauty;
For Yesterday is but a Dream,
And To-morrow is only a Vision;
But To-day well lived makes
Every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.
Look well therefore to this Day!
Such is the Salutation of the Dawn!*

So whether or not this season of the year is "Autumn" or "Fall" to you, or if you are a gardener, or farmer, it is "Harvest" to you and you are reflecting on anything at this time, may you remember each day is bringing forth something of its own uniqueness to each of us.

May you all have a good day!

No more bells for retirees

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

"I truly enjoy seeing retired teachers getting together and reliving some of the wonderful, and sometimes not so wonderful, stories of past teaching experiences," says Lawrence Pidluzny, who this year, took over organizing of the annual first day of school breakfast for retired teachers in the area. "I could not let it drop."

The breakfast was held in the Empress Restaurant's banquet room on Tuesday, Sept. 3, and "At exactly 8:40 a.m., the actual beginning of classes in most schools in St. Paul Education Regional Division No.1, we rang the old school bell and read out a prayer for all those teachers starting their new year," Pidluzny said. "It is a special moment for sure... after some 37 years in the classroom, full time and subbing, the first day of school has a special place in my heart."

The annual celebration dates back some years and was first organized by the late Sid Holthe, who entitled it the "To Hell with the Bell," as attendees were no longer summoned to classrooms by school bells as another year began. Two other longtime teachers, Olga Ockerman and Irene Melin, both who have now passed on, followed Holthe as organizers, with Donna and Paul Chamberland organizing the event in more recent times.

This year, 14 retired teachers and administrators, longtime school secretary Margaret Modin, two spouses and an infant grandchild were on hand to mark the occasion with breakfast and reminiscences.

Among the group were two new retirees: Lorne Young, newly retired as principal of Elk Point Elementary School, and Dale Hymanyk, formerly of Myrnam School. Also present was former Ashmont teacher Marie-Ange Krakowsky.

The Land Use Bylaw governs all building and development within the County of St. Paul No 19. Here are a few things you should know:

Accessory Buildings

What is an accessory building?

A building which is subordinate to, exclusively devoted to, and located on the same site as the principal building. In plain language, it can be a shed, garage, shop, storage building or a structure similar in nature. Accessory buildings require permits.

- An accessory building shall not be used as a dwelling unless it is an approved garage suite or a residential surveillance suite.
- The exterior finish of the accessory building must complement that of a principal building except a farm building in the Agricultural (A) District.
- All accessory buildings shall be set back a minimum of 1.5 m (4.92 ft) from the side property lines.
- All accessory buildings shall be set back a minimum of 1.5m (4.92 ft) from the property line of an internal road.
- No accessory buildings to be located in the front yards of lakefront lots.
- An accessory building shall not be located closer than 2.1 m (7 ft) to a main building.
- The height of an accessory building (including garage suites above grade) may not exceed:
 - Lots less than 1.61 Ha (4.0 acres) - 4.5m (14.75 ft);
 - Lots greater than 1.61 Ha (4.0 acres) - 6.1m (20.0 ft); and
 - Light Industrial Residential (IR) and Industrial Commercial (IC) Districts - 7.6m (25.0 ft).
- The maximum number of accessory buildings permitted on a parcel within the U, CR1 and CR2 Districts is three and the total area shall not exceed 12% of the parcel area.

Todd & Drake LLP is pleased to confirm that Kristy Myshaniuk has completed her term of Articles and is continuing with the Firm as a Barrister and Solicitor. Surrounded by family, friends and colleagues, Kristy was called to the bar on Friday, August 9, 2013 at the Cold Lake Provincial Court. The Honourable Judge Kathleen D. Williams presided over Kristy's bar call ceremony.

Kristy was born and raised in Elk Point, Alberta. Kristy joined Todd & Drake LLP as an articling student after completing her Juris Doctor law degree at the Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto. During law school, Kristy was chosen as one of eleven law students from across Canada to participate in the Aboriginal Lands, Resources, and Government Intensive Program, through which she spent a semester clerking with a Judge at the Waitangi Tribunal in Wellington, New Zealand. Kristy has also completed an Honours Bachelor of Biological Science degree from the University of Alberta and an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree in Native Studies from the University of Alberta as well as a Certificate in Aboriginal Governance from the University of Alberta.

In addition to her studies and employment, Kristy has demonstrated a notable commitment to volunteerism which she credits as allowing her to develop invaluable skills and experience while giving back to the community. Throughout her University studies Kristy was an active volunteer as a counsellor at the University of Alberta Sexual Assault Center, on the Board of Directors of the University of Alberta Campus Food Bank, with the Osgoode Hall Community Legal Aid Services, Osgoode Hall Indigenous Students Council, and Osgoode Hall's Mentorship program where she was awarded the Mentor of the Year Award. Kristy has also been active in community work through her involvement with the Metis Nation of Alberta. Kristy currently sits on the Muriel Lake Basin Management Society Board of Directors as well as the Dr. Margaret Savage Crisis Center Board of Directors. Kristy has recently completed Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) Diagnostic Team Training and will be volunteering with the Lakeland Center for FASD.

Kristy's areas of practice include family law, criminal law, civil litigation, real estate and wills and estates. Kristy is well on her way to building a successful law practice, and we at Todd & Drake LLP are very proud to have her as a member of our team.

JOSHUA JACKSON, Student-at-Law

Todd & Drake LLP is proud to welcome Joshua Jackson to our team. Joshua has started his articles with our firm and is accepting clients in all areas of law.

Joshua Jackson was raised on an acreage near St. Paul, Alberta. He attended the University of Alberta and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology with a minor in Political Science. Joshua was admitted to the University of Alberta Faculty of Law in 2010 and graduated with a Juris Doctorate in 2013. During law school, Joshua was elected as First Year Representative of the Aboriginal Student Legal Association and remained involved with this group throughout his degree. In 2012, Joshua represented the University of Alberta Faculty of Law in the Kawaskimhon National Aboriginal Rights Moot.

INDUSTRY AND COMMUNITY - are the focus of Lakeland Industry and Community Association, with Mildred Dunham on hand to provide information.

Information Night

Other groups offering activities for the younger set included the Parent and Tot Playgroup, Elk Point Christian Community Church's King's Kids and the Elk Point 4-H Beef and 4-H Multi Clubs. Upcoming children's programs, as well as those for adults, were also part of the information available from Elk Point Municipal Library, along with a display of new books, including two by Elk Point authors Diane Ziomek and Jennifer Van der Hoek.

Groups such as Elk Point and District Lions, Elk Point Order of the Royal Purple, Elk Point Healthcare Auxiliary, Elk Point Community Choir and Greater Lakeland Rural Crime Watch were on hand to offer information about their organizations and the benefit to be gained from membership.

Health, wellness and safety displays included those by the Lakeland Health Advisory Council, Alberta Health and TOPS, as well as Elk Point RCMP and Elk Point Victim Services. ATCO Electric was on hand with a very popular display on the safe use of electricity.

The environment was the focus for the North Saskatchewan Watershed Alliance, the Beaver River Watershed group and the Lakeland Industry and Community Association, while agriculture took top billing at the Alberta Beef display and the Classroom Agriculture Program.

Agencies represented at the event included Alberta Works, Employ Abilities and Alberta Supports as well as the host Elk Point FCSS.

Alberta's Lakeland offered information on tourist attractions and events the area and on the scenic Iron Horse Trail, while the Town of Elk Point's mayor, councillors and administrator were proud to show off some of the newest developments in the community.

Grandparents celebrated

By Vicki Brooker
Review Staff

Elk Point celebrated Grandparents Day at Heritage Lodge with a small but very enjoyable gathering at Heritage Lodge on Sunday.

Diana Anderson welcomed everyone and brought a heartwarming message, urging grandparents to pass on their values to their grandchildren.

"I had a drug problem as a child. I was drug to church... and the woodshed... and to the garden to pull weeds..." she said, noting that being "drug" places was very common with her generation. "That drug is still in our veins, stronger than cocaine," she said, stimulating today's seniors to get out and keep active.

Entertainment was provided by Debbie Lawrence, with several vocal selections, and by John Bennett, with some crowd-pleasing piano numbers.

Door prize draws saw Nancy Charchun and Muriel Ducharme win potted chrysanthemums, Deanna Fakeley win an afghan donated by Minnie Moneta and Ruth Vogel win some sweet treats, before everyone enjoyed a decorated cake and other goodies.

Debbie Lawrence sings "That's Important to Me," reflecting on life's joys.

Diana Anderson emceed the Grandparents Day tea, sharing many thought provoking insights.

John Bennett tickled the ivories, to the delight of the audience, with old-time songs such as 'Mac Namara's Band.'

Back to regular hours, programs for new season @ the Library

By DAPHNE SCHNURER
Librarian

We have now returned to our regular hours. Please call the library, stop in and pick up a handy bookmark or check out the poster on the door.

Programs return

Regular programming is also back for a new season.

The first Library Tea (please note – it's not just for seniors – everyone is welcome to join us) goes this Wednesday, Sept. 11 at 2 p.m. so drop by and enjoy some yummy snacks and a whole lot of fun.

The Crafts and Knitting group is also underway again, so bring any project you're working on and join our lively group every Tuesday at 1 p.m.

We've found time for some shelf cleaning over the summer, so it's time for our annual book sale, which is ongoing until Sept. 30. Come and check out our great selection of fiction, non-fiction, children's books, paperbacks, VHS movies and magazines and stock up for those long winter nights ahead.

The After School Kids' Programs will be starting up next month, on Thursdays, Oct. 3 and 24.

COW Bus is coming!

Also for our youngest patrons and their parents or caregivers, we're excited to announce that once again, the Family Literacy COW Bus is heading our way with a whole load of literacy activities for the little ones, and lots of fun for all. Mark Oct. 18 on your calendar and make sure to join us. Contact the library for more details.

And don't forget – we have new books and magazines arriving every week. Make sure to stop by and check out what's new.

See you soon at the Elk Point Municipal Library!

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of LORENSON, Sheila Margaret
June 22, 1938-Sept. 15, 2008

Five years ago a good life came to a peaceful end.

Sheila died as she lived, everyone's friend,

Upright and just in all her ways
Loving and kind to the end of her days.

We saw her suffer, heard her sigh,
We could do nothing but sit close by,
We have lost, but heaven has gained,
One of the best the world contained.

Always remembered and never forgotten, Ronnie and Family.

THANK YOU

To all my friends & family
Thank you for attending my 90th Birthday Celebration

Thanks for all the lovely birthday cards, lottery tickets, gifts and those who supplied the entertainment. The music and singing was great.

Also a special thanks to Ernie & Debbie, Kim & Mandy, Marg and all who worked and organized this very special occasion.

Thank you all again and see you on my 95th.

Major prizes wow the winners at Diamond Drillbit

And the drillbit goes to...

Shaina Gadowski (right) presents the coveted Diamond Drillbit necklace to a beaming Corrine Cumby at the Diamond Drillbit Ladies' Golf Tournament.

Amber Malo was the lucky winner of the second draw prize, a pair of diamond earrings, presented by Shaina Gadowski.

Golfer Jill Westman was excited to accept a certificate for a Fantasyland Hotel stay from Shaina Gadowski.

Connie Olstad, winner of the beautiful gas barbecue, said her prize was just what she needed. Happy grilling, Connie!

Right on! Dennell Anderson gave Shaina Gadowski a big hug when she accepted her draw prize of a set of golf clubs at the Diamond Drillbit tournament.

Not shown are Megan Lehr, winner of a golf bag and accessories, and Karen Stafford, winner of a week's holiday at Bighorn Meadows.

School Board Elections: October 21, 2013

Be part of important decisions...

become a school trustee

School boards make important decisions. Be part of those decisions.

St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1 encourages individuals with an interest in education to consider running for trustee. It is important work that makes a difference in the development of our children and in the lives of local residents - whether you have children in school or not.

The date to file nomination papers is September 23, 2013. Our central office has information about becoming a school board trustee. Call us at (780) 645-3323. You may also visit the Alberta School Boards Association website at www.asba.ab.ca.
